II. SURAH HIJR BRIEF COMMENTARY & BACK GROUND

- This Surah has 99 verses divided into 6 Rukus/Sections. This Surah was revealed in Mecca in a later stage of Prophet Muhammad preaching in Mecca when persecution had become severe. Its revelation period is almost the same as that of Surah Ibrahim. Its name comes from verse 80 where there is mention of the word “Hijr.” The majority of scholars believe this refers to the people of Thamud and the rocky region mentioned is the stone cities where Thamud used to live in the northern part of Arab.
- This Surah contains comfort and encouragement to the Holy Prophet and disbelievers have been admonished to accept the message and also warned of the consequences of rejecting this Divine revelation by narrating to them the stories of Adam and Devil, Previous Prophets and their people.
- The Messenger of God (PBUH) said: The one who recites this Surah will be given good deeds equal to the number of the (Muhajrins)emigrants and the helpers(Ansars).

1. Introduction to surah al hijr:

Surah Hijr is the unique surah in the grouping of three surahs. From its style it becomes obvious that it is an early Makki surah. One of the salient qualities (it is not the only quality) of Makkan Qur'an is that the Ayat are shorter and the rhyme scheme and rhythm of the surah moves much faster. One thing is to listen to the dars of these ayat and understand their meanings little by little at least in translation but it is a completely different experience after that, once you have a comfortable relationship with the meaning, is to listen to the recitation. It is a very powerful experience because this is what is meant to be experienced in, in recitation. There, the effect just isn't in the words and the meanings, but of how the syllables flow and how the words end. It literally has this enchanting experience to it. There is a reason why they called it sihr. It had a very powerful psychological impact. Those impacts are felt more in ayats that are shorter. So the rhythmic flow is more obvious there. The Surah is 99 ayat long. The first argument of the Surah is that the Qur'aan doesn't need outside validation. It is a miracle in and of itself. The people who are making fun of it now and are denying it now are going to regret it. So the Prophet is told to just leave them be. Their time is set, let them ask for the angels, fine, when the angels come they are not going to be given extra time anyway. The People of Hijr and what happened to them. The Noble Qur'an and Surah al-Fatihah are special gifts of Allah Almighty. Allah Almighty will take care of those who ridicule His message. It is named 'Hijr' after the valley located between Madinah and Sham where the people of Salih, Thamud lived. Whoever recites this Quran surah al Hijr good deeds equal to the number of muhajirin and ansar would be written in his record of deeds and better deeds. Whoever writes this Noble Quran surah al Hijr with Amber, on a single china plate, washes it with water and gives it to a woman who has no milk. That woman, after drinking it, would have enough milk and she, after drinking it, would have enough milk to feed her baby. Whoso writes this Noble Quran surah al Hijr on paper and wears on his body there would always be gain and profit in business dealings:

6. Concluison

Most of the discussions in this noble Surah are about the accusations and scoffs of the pagans unto the Qur'an and the blissful Prophet (S), as well as some. The issue in question in here is: What is the objective of 'the nine verses', which have been alluded to in the verses under discussion? The expressions utilized in these verses reveal the fact that they signify miracles which were mentioned in connection with Pharaoh and the adherents of Pharaoh, and not the ones which were involved with the Children of Israel themselves, like the descending of 'Mann and Salwa', and the emergence of the spring from a stone, and the like. The argument that is continuous in the Quran is that if you really want something to see, then why don't you look at creation? Why don't you look at you and reflect? From the 16th to the 25th the ayah is essentially that kind of istidlal Reaching conclusions by means of the creations around us. People who can look at clues and make a decision and reach the conclusion, like a tracker who looks at the prints and determines where it is headed, that is a muttawassim; he reads the sign and makes the conclusion. Intelligent people can look at the sign and can tell what is going on. So muttawassim is used, imagine a man walking in Makkah and he sees a little pebble on the ground. After reading a story, that pebble is enough for him. He could do wassum now, he can make the conclusion that this may have been a bullet meant for him. The rain could have come.
